SUMMARY

Transcript of a conversation between Plaintiff and Defendant, Kenneth Pinto, in which Plaintiff demonstrates two audio recordings of Defendant, Suzie DOE: one, of her in her capacity as a clerk for the Santa Clara County Adult Probation Department; and, second, of her seemingly impersonating a customer service representative for Defendant, Origen Financial.

TRANSCRIPT

PLAINTIFF: There is, uh, this lady right here—I don't know if you recognize her or not—does [she] look familiar? She works at the Probation Officer, er, Office.

PINTO: At the counter?

PLAINTIFF: Yeah.

PINTO: Mm, I don't recognize her; but, I'll...I'll take your word for it.

PLAINTIFF: Well, she has a very distinctive, highly characteristic voice, um, one that you could never mistake [for someone else's]. Uh, I have two [stutters] recorded telephone conversations of her: one, her acting in her capacity, here, as a clerk at, uh, at the probation department; and, one, impersonating a customer service representative at, um, my mortgage company. Someone has been intercepting my calls, uh, just to make sure that I don't get good representation—or any representation—on any case I try to file, or fight, um, or [for getting]

1 my money back for...the proceeds from the sale of my
2 home, for example (as in this case). Um, what do you
3 think about that, Kenneth?

4 PINTO: Um, I think it's quite unlikely.

5 PLAINTIFF: Well, I mean, I'll let you hear it, and you can tell me
6 what you think. Just...just humor me here. So, here's an
7 example of her talking, um, in the capacity of 'clerk,'
8 and, then, after that, it's Origen Financial.

9 SUZIE [SANTA CLARA COUNTY ADULT PROBATION]:

10 What was the person's name you were calling for?

11 SUZIE [ORIGEN FINANCIAL]:

12 We just sold the home in...in February.

13 PLAINTIFF: See what I'm saying? That's the same person: one of the 14 clerk's office, one at Origen Financial. And, I've got 15 dozens of these.

16 PINTO: Well, I think you should go down to the financial...
17 the...the...the mortgage company, and...and...and...

18 PLAINTIFF: In Texas? In Texas?!
